

Summary of interview

On 17 August, 2010 the Applicants' representative, Dana Stangel, called Examiner Lovel regarding the application. The Applicants' representative made general distinctions between the cited art and the application. Specific claims and elements of claims were not discussed. The Applicants' representative and the Examiner agreed that a more detailed discussion might be helpful after the Office Action response was filed.